

Life changes.

Life changes. As a professional aircraft broker, Jerry Temple Aviation hears of the many reasons for selling an airplane. There are operational and personal reasons. Change of mission, utilization, retirement, financial and family issues, or upgrading to an aircraft which better suits your needs.

When it's time to sell, it's a comfort to know that JTA understands the emotions that go with saying goodbye to a long-time possession – an old friend if you will. True, it's just an airplane, but it represents a lot of hours, memories, and experiences that are a part of life – both the airplane's and yours.
